

I build revenue engines at business inflection points.

GROWTH MARKETING / DEMAND GENERATION / PRODUCT MARKETING

I build high-performing marketing engines that turn strategy into measurable pipeline. Over 22+ years, I've led demand generation, product marketing, and brand strategy across growth-stage and enterprise SaaS — building revenue engines at business inflection points, transitioning organizations from sales-led to marketing-led GTM, and driving consistent double-digit pipeline growth in complex B2B and B2B2C environments. I thrive at the intersection of message and mechanism, shaping the story and architecting the engine behind it, with a structured, modern approach to growth and a deep bias for aligned execution across Sales, Product, and RevOps.

Professional Experience

RecVue — Head of Growth Marketing

July 2025–Present

Enterprise SaaS platform for complex revenue operations. Leads growth marketing across demand, product marketing, content, lifecycle, sales enablement, and operations; reports to the CMO.

- Built the demand engine from a minimal baseline; marketing sourced 10 of 14 tracked opportunities (~71%) in the September 2026 pipeline snapshot.
- Generated approximately $1.62M in marketing-sourced opportunity value across paid search, organic/AEO, content syndication, and Salesforce AgentExchange, including one closed-won customer in the September 2026 roll-up.
- Led go-to-market launches for RevOS and Agentic RevOS, translating complex AI capabilities into positioning, campaign messaging, content, and sales enablement with Product and Sales.
- Built acquisition and nurture programs across paid search, LinkedIn, content syndication, and SEO/AEO; developed persona and solution-based journeys to convert content engagement into sales conversations.
- Designed full-funnel reporting, attribution, qualification, and stage discipline in Salesforce; use channel conversion data to prioritize spend and address gaps from inquiry through opportunity.
- Lead a lean internal team supported by specialist agencies and contractors; extend execution capacity with AI-assisted research, content development, and campaign workflows.

Postie — VP of Marketing

2022–2024

Martech platform serving brands and agencies. Joined as the first marketing hire, reporting to the CEO, and built the marketing function.

- Built marketing-sourced pipeline contribution to approximately 52% within the first year; established demand generation, product marketing, content, and lifecycle programs.
- Defined ICP, TAM, and buyer journeys; built attribution and the martech stack to connect investment with pipeline performance.
- Built a multidisciplinary team and contractor model; owned budget, sales enablement, and cross-functional go-to-market alignment.

TrackVia — Senior Director, Marketing

2021–2022

Low-code workflow platform serving SMB, mid-market, and enterprise customers.

- Rebuilt the growth engine across performance marketing, lifecycle, and product-led acquisition, supporting self-serve and sales-assisted motions.
- Aligned messaging and the go-to-market roadmap with pipeline goals; tuned channel mix to increase SQLs and partnered across teams to scale content, automation, and campaign execution.

Vendavo — Senior Director, Global Marketing Programs

2017–2021

Enterprise pricing and revenue optimization software. Led global demand generation and marketing operations as company revenue grew from approximately $45M to $78M.

- Delivered 14 consecutive quarters of double-digit MQL and pipeline growth, supporting a 54% increase in SaaS revenue.
- Built and expanded a marketing organization to approximately 15 across the U.S. and Europe, spanning demand, product marketing, content, and BDRs.
- Rebuilt attribution across Salesforce and Marketo; connected global programs, vertical messaging, and field execution to Sales priorities.
- Expanded team and program coverage through international growth and acquisitions; balanced strategy with hands-on operational leadership.

4INFO — Senior Director of Marketing

2015–2017

Advertising technology business serving brands and agencies.

- Managed a $1.5M media budget across digital, print, and events; led vertical messaging, sales enablement, marketing automation, and campaign execution.

MapQuest — Enterprise Solutions & Product Marketing

2011–2015

Director, Enterprise Solutions Marketing (2014–2015); Product Marketing Manager (2011–2015).

- Led enterprise positioning, lead generation, content, and business development; managed Salesforce-driven scoring, conversion, and nurture programs.
- Owned consumer product positioning, competitive analysis, and audience personas; led go-to-market campaigns for major iOS and Android launches across paid, earned, and owned media.
